Re: United States v. Alexander Green, et ano.
14-cr-6038

Dear Judge Wolford:

Please do not think me presumptuous in writing this letter.

I am enclosing copies of two memoranda: an April 2, 2019 memorandum from the United States Marshal's Service, regarding "2019 Detention Funding Shortfall"; and an April 16, 2019 memorandum from the Judicial Conference to all United States Judges, regarding the same.

In light of this budget shortfall, and the series of extraordinary steps recommended by the Marshal's Service, I respectfully request the Court to reconsider its detention of Alexander Green, particularly in light of his five-year history of reporting to Court as ordered. I know that Mr. Green's release and voluntary surrender will not resolve this budgetary crisis; however, it will certainly alleviate costs that are being incurred—first by his incarceration in the Livingston County Jail, and second by his transportation to a designated facility.

I am copying Mr. Eldridge on this letter (by email) and similarly suggesting that the government reconsider its position. After all, limited financial resources for the Marshal's Service could be put to far better use than the incarceration and transportation of Mr. Green.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

David Rothenberg
